Learn New Skills This Spring at NCC's Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship

By NCC

BETHLEHEM, PA - Northampton Community College (NCC) is excited to announce new learning opportunities for craftsmanship and professional development this spring at the Fowler Family Southside Center in Bethlehem.

The first opportunity, Intro to Drafting and Design Software, is a course designed to give participants a comprehensive overview of AutoCAD, Fusion 360, SolidWorks, and Revit Architecture, with insights into their functionalities and applications. Whether you're just a beginner or looking to expand your skill set, this workshop will serve as a foundation for further specialization in future classes. Classes will be held at the Fowler Family Southside Center on January 14 and 16 from 6pm – 8:30pm. The fee is $130. For more information and to register, visit <https://www.fablabncc.net/> or email fablab@northampton.edu.

Next, whether you're dreaming of building your own home studio, interested in learning more about the art of audio production, or want to find out more about industry-standard mixing software, you can explore audio engineering with our hands-on courses at the Fowler Family Southside Center. Starting with Building a Home Studio, participants will learn the skills necessary to design, equip, and optimize a home recording studio for high-quality audio production. This class will be held on January 30 at 6pm. NCC's Intro to Audio Engineering will give participants a comprehensive understanding of the foundational principles and practical skills necessary for working effectively in live or studio audio production. Classes will be held February 5 to February 19 at 6pm. NCC will also offer Intro to Pro Tools, in which participants can gain hands-on experience in recording, editing, and mixing in our state-of-the-art sound booth. Classes will be held March 3 to March 6 at 6:30pm. For more information and to register, visit <https://www.fablabncc.net/> or email fablab@northampton.edu.

Lastly, unleash your creativity and uncover the secrets of storytelling using both words and pictures in a Comic Book Zine Workshop. Participants will learn the basics of creating a sequential art narrative under the guidance of award-winning writer and Editor Matt Murray, who has worked for Stan Lee, Clive Barker, The Smurfs, Conan the Barbarian, and more. All levels of writers and artists are welcome. The class will be held February 4 to February 27 on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. For more information and to register, visit <https://www.fablabncc.net/> or email fablab@northampton.edu.

Pennsylvania's First $1,000 A Day For Life, Cash4Life Prize Sold In Northampton County

By Jessica Heisey 69 News

For the first time ever, Pennsylvania has awarded a $7 million top-prize from the Cash4Life® multi-state game for the Friday, January 3 drawing, states PA Lottery.

This is the first since the Pennsylvania Lottery joined the game in April 2015.

PA Lottery states, the Cash4Life® ticket correctly matched all five balls drawn, 12-25-28-47-55, and the green Cash Ball 1, to win an annuity prize valued at $365,000 a year for life, or a cash prize option of $7 million, less applicable tax withholding.

The selling retailer, GIANT Food Stores, 837 Male Road, Wind Gap, will earn a $10,000 bonus.

The PA Lottery says, Cash4Life® offers players a chance to win $1,000 a day for life, or $1,000 a week for life as a second-tier prize, as well as seven other prize levels.

Prior to awarding the first $1,000 a day for life prize, the Cash4Life® game has previously awarded 17, $1 million prizes in Pennsylvania, according to the PA Lottery.

More than 4,800 other Cash4Life® tickets in Pennsylvania also won prizes in the drawing. Players should check every ticket, states the PA Lottery.
