

Resignation of Becky Bartlett

By NORCO

EASTON - Becky Bartlett has announced that she will be leaving County Government effective 1/27/23. Bartlett has served as Deputy Director of Administration for 5 years and as the County's Chief Information Officer.

In a letter to Director of Administration Charles M. Dertinger, Bartlett wrote, "Please accept this letter as formal notification that I am resigning from my position as Deputy Director with the County of Northampton. My last day will be January 27, 2023. Thank you for the opportunity to work in this position. I have very much enjoyed my five years with the Administration."

County Executive Lamont G. McClure said of Bartlett, "It is not an over statement to say, that Becky has played a vital role in the success of this Administration. She took her responsibility to keep the public informed – especially through the pandemic very seriously. Becky has our deepest thanks and our most fond wishes for happiness in this next phase of her life."

Thinking Green in 2023

By WM

SLATE BELT - The new year has begun, and Grand Central Landfill Manager Joe Statile and Senior Community Relations Specialist Adrienne Fors have been busy (as usual!). Adrienne and Joe attended the Lehigh Valley Greenways Summit on January 12 with various community partners. The event focused on conservation efforts in the Lehigh Valley and Slate Belt. Grand Central Landfill has been a partner for more than a decade – preserving and nurturing over 200 acres of warm-season grasslands that support the local American kestrel population.

Fun at the Farm Show

By State Rep. Ann Flood

HARRISBURG - The Pennsylvania Farm Show was in full swing this past week.

I had a great time visiting the animals; cuddling with baby goats; checking out the impressive butter sculpture; trying some delicious food from various vendors, including the milkshakes; and speaking with constituents who attended. I even ran into Reps. Milou Mackenzie and Ryan Mackenzie while there!

If you haven't had the chance to take the trip to Harrisburg this year, put it on your calendar for next year.

My new district office is now open and ready to serve constituents. This new office is located at 962 W. Pennsylvania Avenue in Pen Argyl.
