Cornish Afternoon Tea and Patron Saint Day

PEN ARGYL— The Pennsylvania Cornwall Association, Penkernewek, will celebrate St. Piran's Day the patron saint of Cornwall. Saint Piran traveled through Wales, Cornwall and Brittany spreading the Christian faith and starting churches. St. Piran became the patron saint of tanners and miners, and his fest day on the 5th of March was celebrated in Cornwall by receiving a day off from work and a bonus of money. The Cornish flag is known as Saint Piran's Cross a white cross over a black background, symbolizing the Christian faith shining over lies, good over evil.

The day will be commemorated with a Cornish Afternoon Tea on March 6th, snow date March 13th, kicking off Cornish Heritage week as declared by the Boroughs of East Bangor and Pen Argyl. The tea will be held in the Fellowship Hall of Grace United Methodist Church, 404 East Mountain Ave. Pen Argyl, PA at 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. doors open at 1:00P.M., with music on the harp by Jolynn Dentith.

A Cream Tea includes three courses. The first course consists of; finger sandwiches. Next, will be scones and splits with jam, butter or clotted cream, followed by small cookies and bite-sized pieces of cake.

Getting Started on a Garden

My garden for this summer is already taking shape, at least on the kitchen counters, where dozens of little seed pots are lined up in flats. This year my goal is to grow vegetables for the food bank. I've already tried out my new PotMaker, a handy wooden gadget for making seed-starting pots out of newspaper.

I almost gave up gardening last year, mostly because of all the work. The stooping and bending was the worst of it. This year things will be up higher and easier to reach. A father-and-son team here in town are working on some trellises for me. Those will be for the climbing plants. When the weather is warmer, father and son will be over here building some extra-high raised beds.

A neighbor and I have gone in together on the cost of seeds. We have different ways of planting and growing, so we'll have to see which methods work best. (She goes for grow lights, while I prefer the sun, for one thing.)

So far, the menu-to-be consists of sweet peppers (mostly for the bright colors), tomatoes, carrots, three types of lettuce, radishes, cucumbers, green beans and climbing spinach.

If you don't have garden space, your town might have a site designated for a seniors' vegetable garden. Or if you live in a retirement center, ask about setting aside a communal area for residents to grow vegetables or flowers.

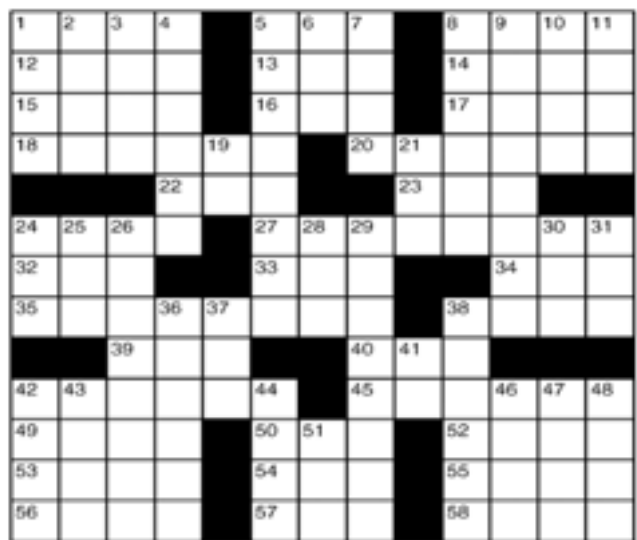

Here are some places to get a head start on planning your garden: Burpee (www.burpee.com) Phone Orders: 1-800-888-1447 Park Seed Company (www.parkseed.com) 1-800-213-0076 Johnny's Seeds (www.johnnyseeds.com) 1-877-564-6697 To get started, all you need is pencil, paper, catalog -- and your imagination. LEO (July 23 to August 22)

You're making progress as you move through some unfamiliar territory. And while there might be a misstep or two along the way, overall you're heading in the right direction. Good luck.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Change is still dominant for Rams and Ewes, both in the workplace and their private lives. This is also a good time to look at a possible relocation if that has been one of your goals.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Doing things for others is what you do well. But don't forget that Bovines thrive on the arts, so make some time for yourself to indulge your passion for music and artistic expressions.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) While the Romantic Twin considers where to go for his or her upcoming vacation, the Practical Twin will start making travel plans now to take advantage of some great bargains.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your sensitive nature helps you deal with a difficult emotional situation. Be patient and continue to show your sincere support wherever (and for whom-ever) it is needed.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22)

Perhaps things aren't moving as quickly as you'd prefer, but they're moving nevertheless.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) This is a good week to step back and assess the facts that have recently emerged to see where they can be used to your advantage. Also, don't hesitate to make changes where necessary.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You should begin to experience some support from those who now agree with your point of view. This should help counter the remaining objections from die-hard skeptics.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Don't let your aim be deflected by trivial matters as you try to resolve a confusing situation. Take time to find and thoroughly assess the facts before making any decision.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The possibility of moving to another location has come up. But before you dismiss it as unwarranted, it's worth checking out just in case it does have some merit after all.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) New relationships -- personal or work-related -- show mixed signals. Best to assume nothing. Let things play themselves out until you have something substantive to work with.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your ability to make needed changes without causing too much, if any, negative ripple effect comes in handy when dealing with a sensitive matter either on the job or in the family.

BORN THIS WEEK: Although you like things to go smoothly, you're not shy about making waves when you believe the situation calls for it.
