2019 Pen Argyl Graduation

The ceremony recognized two seniors Jonathan Antionoli and Santino Tomaro who passed away during the school year, two students accepted their diplomas.

The Class gift was given by Class Sec. Cade Kuster and Treasurer Alexia Brown. $3000 will be used for rooms by students who have mental health issues in the future at Pen Argyl High School.

Superintendent Wally Schlegel gave his remarks and was then presented the class of 2019 by Principal Domchek.

Acknowledgment and remarks were given by school board President Robert Rutt and then diplomas were handed out to the 127 graduates marking the 120 annual commencement.
