Pennsylvania's 40th District
Serving Lackawanna, Monroe, and Wayne Counties

The Moving Wall is Coming to Monroe County

By Senator Rosemary Brown

The Moving Wall is coming to Stroudsburg High School, courtesy of the Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 678! The opening ceremony will be held July 10th at 6 p.m., and the wall will be on display until July 12th at sunset.

This is a great opportunity for the community to learn about the war in Vietnam and the impact it has had on our nation and our veterans!

Please visit www.themovingwall.org for more information about this powerful symbol of American history coming to our area.

Supporting Youth Field Hockey in Monroe County

By Senator Rosemary Brown

Sen. Rosemary Brown poses for a picture with Amanda Parrish and Samantha Holbert in a restaurant in Stroudsburg.

I recently met with Amanda Parrish, Stroudsburg Head Field Hockey Coach, and Samantha Holbert of the Community Foundation of Monroe County to discuss the launch of a new youth field hockey league right here in our community.

Amanda is working diligently to build a strong, affordable field hockey program that will give young athletes the opportunity to learn, grow, and compete. During our meeting, I received an update on the program's progress and the roadmap for its successful launch.

With the support of dedicated volunteers and community partners and myself, this new league has the potential to become a pillar of youth engagement in Monroe County. I look forward to seeing this exciting program grow and the positive impact it will have on local families for years to come. Thank you, Amanda!
