Washington Township Volunteer Fire Co. 50 Years Of Service

By State Rep. Joe Emrick

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP- Congratulations to the Washington Township Volunteer Fire Company on celebrating 50 years of service to our community. I was pleased to join Sen. Mario Scavello in presenting them with a Senate and House Proclamation honoring this great achievement.

Our fire companies sacrifice so much of their time and talents to come to our aid when we are in danger. Thank you to all our firefighters and other first responders for your unwavering dedication to keeping our communities safe!

50th Antique Gas Engine and Tractor Show

By Michael Ortoski

JACKTOWN - Hosted by Blue Mt. Gas & Steam Engine Assn., the Antique Gas Engine and Tractor Show celebrated their 50th anniversary over the three day event. The second event put on by the group this year after missing both in 2019 because of COVID19.

Billed as the 'Friendly Show in the Grove' their was something for all ages. Admission, parking and entertainment are always FREE for their two annual events.

On display were many different small gas engines working to show how it was done in the past, pumping, running saw blades and other things off of a belt drive. As part of the entertainment of 5 different bands there were three different tractor pulls; antique, garden and kid's pedal. In the 3 yr age group Riley Garr, Riley

Boroughs Of Wind Gap And Pen Argyl 2021 Summer Sounds Concert Series

By Michael Ortoski

PEN ARGYL - Sixth of the ten Summer Sounds Concert Series of 2021 was presented at Pen Argyl WEONA park Sunday night. On stage was one of the fan favorite (my personal favorite) Philadelphia Funk Authority. 'Their more than just funk, it's a dance & party music from the past 5 decades' says the program.

They draw the largest crowds. There were over 300 people enjoying the music, tapping their foot, dancing and of course singing along with the band. The show started with a dark cloud over head, but that soon blew over leaving a cool night unlike all the humidity we have had.

If you have never taken advantage of these FREE concerts you should
