Slate Belt Heritage Center July Presentation

By Cheryl Statham

BANGOR - The Slate Belt Heritage Center has announced that their July virtual presentation will be on the 100th Anniversary of Weona Park in Pen Argyl. Walter Cole, a retired Pen Argyl History and Social Studies teacher, will be leading the program. It will include the events leading to the building of the park, the appearance of the park when it first opened in 1921, and the events that occurred during the park's first summer season.

The presentation will also cover the changes that have occurred to the park during the past century and the history of the historic Dentzel Carousel. The presentation will be posted on the Heritage Center's Facebook page, Slate-Belt-Heritage-Center-SBHC, on Thursday, July 22, 2021. This will be the Center's last virtual presentation, as the remaining programs will be going live, starting in August.
