a WILD week IN REVIEW

It's been another hectic week in Washington, but I want to start out by celebrating that Bethlehem is now home to a UNESCO World Heritage Site! The designation of Moravian Church Settlements in Bethlehem as the 26th World Heritage Site in the United States was announced this morning at the World Heritage Committee meeting in New Delhi, India. Located in the heart of downtown Bethlehem, these settlements are some of the most important structures for Moravians, and I am proud to have helped them receive the recognition they deserve.

This week, we also recognized and celebrated the hard work and service of our interns on Intern Recognition Day yesterday. If you have called into or stopped by my offices in D.C. or Pennsylvania, you have likely interacted with one of my fabulous interns. These dedicated young people are committed to serving members of our community, and they truly help keep my office running. If you are interested in future internship opportunities with my office, please visit my website to learn more.

As July wraps up and we enter August, do you have any travel plans? If you're going abroad, make sure your passport is up to date! My team of constituent advocates is here to help if you need to renew your passport or get in touch with the State Department for travel related inquiries. To contact my team, fill out the form on my website or give us a call at (484) 781-6000.

LEHIGH VALLEY OLYMPIANS

Rep. Wild Celebrates Local Athletes at Paris Olympics

Today is the opening ceremony of the 2024 Olympics, and the Greater Lehigh Valley is well-represented in Paris! Three athletes from our community have traveled to France to represent Team USA this year, and I hope you will join me in cheering them on as they go for gold!

Joe Kovacs, from Bethlehem, will compete in his third Olympic games this year in track and field. Joe already holds two Olympic silver medals for shot put. Joining him are Meredith Sholder, of Allentown, and Lehigh University graduate Jeremiah Davis. Meredith is on the U.S. Field Hockey Team, and Jeremiah will be competing in long jump. I'm so proud of these incredible members of our community, and all the athletes on Team USA!
