Rep. Susan Wild and County Executive Listens to Concerns, Answers Questions at Town Hall in Pen Argyl, Northampton County

By Congresswoman Susan Wild

PEN ARGYL, P.A. – Yesterday evening, Congresswoman Susan Wild held a town hall in Pen Argyl in Northampton County, where she was joined by Northampton County Executive Lamont McClure and additional local elected officials and leaders.

"I was happy to be in Pen Argyl yesterday evening to hear directly from people across our community about what's been on their minds," said Rep. Susan Wild. "My focus as your representative is on delivering for our district – by bringing good-paying jobs home, lowering your health care costs, expanding broadband access, and so much more."

Rep. Wild listened to constituents' concerns and answered questions, on a wide range of topics from recent flash-flooding and repairs to Route 611; to issues with Social Security benefits and ensuring our kids are safe in schools; to broadband and high-speed internet access across PA-07.
