

NCC CBI's Spring Management Certificate Program

Effectively Manage Work And People

By NCC

BETHLEHEM, PA - Northampton Community College's (NCC) Center for Business & Industry (CBI) is offering its popular Management Certificate Program starting January 9 at the NCC Fowler Family Southside Center, 511 E. Third Street, Bethlehem. This program is comprised of six workshops that are taught by industry-experienced instructors. Participants will learn skills and gain the confidence needed to effectively manage work and people, coach employee performance to achieve organizational goals and objectives, communicate with all personality types and so much more.

The workshops include: Basic Management Skills, Coaching for Improved Performance, Conflict Resolution Strategies, Effective Interactions, Managing the Performance of Others, and Responsive Leadership. Participants who complete the six required workshops will earn CBI's Management Certificate. Virtual Workshops are also available.

To learn more about the CBI Management Certificate Program and to register for the workshop courses, please visit www.northampton.edu/cbi-courses. For questions, please email cbi@northampton.edu.
