

Trans-Bridge Lines Announces Limited-Time Reduced One-Way Adult Fares on Select PA-NY Routes

By Trans-Bridge Lines

BETHLEHEM, PA — Trans-Bridge Lines is pleased to announce a limited-time special reduced One-Way Adult Fare offer on select routes and select stops between Pennsylvania and New York, reinforcing the company's commitment to providing safe, reliable, and affordable transportation for its passengers.

This promotional pricing of $39.95 for a One-Way Adult Fare, allows travelers to experience Trans-Bridge Lines' high standards of service at a reduced cost, making travel more accessible during a time when affordability remains a priority for many riders.

"Direct service to New York with flexible schedules and reliability are essential to the communities we serve," said Tom JeBran, President of Trans-Bridge Lines. "This limited-time fare reduction allows us to provide meaningful savings for our passengers while continuing to deliver the safe, dependable service they expect from us. With no transfers and layovers our travelers can enjoy comfortable and cost-effective transportation to get to their destinations efficiently and confidently this holiday season."

The reduced fare are valid on select runs and select stops through January 4, 2026. Seats offered at the special pricing are limited and subject to availability. Passengers are encouraged to plan ahead and book early to secure the discounted rate.

Trans-Bridge Lines has proudly served the region for over eight decades, offering professionally operated motorcoach service with an emphasis on safety, reliability, and customer satisfaction.

Santa and Mrs. Claus Visit Roseto

By Joe Martocci

ROSETO - On Friday evening December 12th, Santa and Mrs. Claus took time out of their busy schedule to visit the children of Roseto. They were escorted through Roseto by the Columbia Fire Company No. 1 as the visited homes in Roseto and brought gifts to the children from their wish lists.

While the weather was clear and cold, the children didn't seem to mind as they were happy to see both Santa and Mrs. Claus for a quick visit.
