U.S. CONGRESS

Joining Vice President Vance in the Lehigh Valley

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

This week, I was proud to welcome Vice President JD Vance, Second Lady Usha Vance, and Secretary of Labor Lori Chavez-DeRemer to Allentown to highlight the economic progress we're delivering for working families, seniors, and small businesses in the Lehigh Valley.

We met at Uline to discuss how Congress and the administration are cutting taxes, lowering prices, and rebuilding the economy. After the event, I joined the Vice President and Second Lady at the Allentown Rescue Mission, where we served lunch to guests at the shelter and thanked the team for their incredible work. I'll keep working to lower costs and grow opportunities across our region.

Mom is happy and I finally have some peace of mind!

We were at an impasse. We wanted Mom to consider Personal Care but she was dead set against it. She can manage just fine, she insisted. I love her dearly but worry constantly. She reluctantly agreed to visit Walden III and they suggested a compromise. Independent Living! She gets to retain her independence and her dog and I enjoy the comfort and security knowing that help is always on hand.

Over the weekend, I joined local volunteers and veterans at a Wreaths Across America ceremony at Jordan United Church of Christ in South Whitehall Township. This historic cemetery is the final resting place for veterans of every major American conflict, including a Civil War soldier whose descendants remain part of the church community. As wreaths were laid on the graves of our fallen heroes, we paused to remember their service and honor their sacrifice.

Supporting veterans, servicemembers, and military families remains one of my top priorities in Congress. Earlier this month, we hosted a Veterans Resource Expo at Penn's Peak to connect veterans with care, benefits, and support services. Whether it's through legislation, casework, or events like these, I'll keep working to ensure those who served receive the recognition and support they deserve.
