

Plainfield Farmers' Fair

There were several live music entertainers at the fair. Tuesday's guest was "Randy Simpson" a Gospel Music singer as well as singer "Eva Blankenhorn". Wednesday's musical entertainer was "Crazy Heart" and Friday's was "Steel Creek", both country music bands. Thursday and Saturday brought two oldies bands to the stage, the "New Individuals" on Thursday and "King Henry & the Showmen" on Saturday.

Slate Belt Child Care Center is NAEYC Accredited: We continue to reach the standards set by the National Association for the Education of Young Children

SBCCC offers:

- Age appropriate curriculum in each classroom.
- A safe, caring environment for your child to learn and interact.
- Full-time/Part-time care and Full/Half day preschool programs.
- Planned special events throughout the year.

We now have openings in all age groups:

- Infant/Toddler — Activities will promote children's motor skills, enhance creativity and imagination, and develop vocabulary.
- Preschool — Activities are based around a weekly theme and will incorporate skills needed for Kindergarten. Our preschool curriculum includes art, music, outside play, cooking projects, and much more.
- School-Age — Fun and educational activities are provided on a daily basis. We offer before and after school care (including school closings) and summer programs.

NAEYC Accreditation is the mark of quality you can trust.

NAEYC-Accredited programs provide a safe and healthy learning environment with well-trained teachers who work with curricula that are appropriately challenging and developmentally sound.
