The Slate Belt Heritage Center & Museum

Will hold their monthly historic program on Thursday, April 16th @ 7:00 PM.

As The United States is in full swing of celebrating its' "Semiquincentennial", come join speaker Melissa Hough as she presents "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness: What Would We Do?" What would we do if we lived during the War of Independence? When it was a major struggle to survive on what was the frontier, how did international events impact the lives of people in what we now call the Slate Belt? What sites and artifacts do we have that connect us to those times? Follow Melissa on a journey into the Slate Belt area's lifestyle in the mid-1700's and the big questions that confronted people at that time.

Melissa is the Curator of the Heritage Center & Museum and possesses a wealth of knowledge on the Slate Belt. Featured in the Chamber Room will be the Center's 2026 exhibit: "Life, Liberty & the Pursuit of Happiness". The event is free and open to the public. The Center is located at 30 North 1st Street, Bangor, PA. For additional information please contact: Karen Brewer @ 484-894-5661.
