From the Desk of Jennifer Sinclair CSCGLV Program Director

By Jennifer Sinclair

LEHIGH VALLEY - I promised myself I wouldn't begin this letter with a heavy sentiment about leaving, so I'll simply share my news with honesty and gratitude: I am resigning from my position as Program Director at CSCGLV.

Being part of this community for more than twenty years has been an honor. The lessons I've learned and the impact CSCGLV has had on my life are impossible to fully capture. What I can say is that I will always be grateful — for the shared purpose and the countless moments of connection that made this work meaningful. I am deeply grateful for the experiences I've had working alongside so many dedicated staff, program providers, community partners, volunteers, and members. The people I've met, the stories I've witnessed, and the work we've done together have shaped me in ways I will carry forever. While this transition brings many emotions, my heart is full — with appreciation, pride, and hope for what comes next.

In June, I will be returning to my roots as a counselor when I join the team at Lehigh Valley Health Network. Although my role will look different, my commitment to supporting individuals affected by cancer remains unchanged. I will continue to honor CSC's mission, just from a different vantage point.

Thank you for allowing me to be part of something so important and for your support as I step into my next role. In these next two months, when our paths cross, I hope we can share a story and a smile – a reminder that our connections with one another matter deeply, and that we are stronger because of the community we've built together.
