Continued Focus on Combatting Fentanyl

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

I recently hosted FBI Director Kash Patel in Allentown for a roundtable on Pennsylvania's fentanyl crisis, bringing together federal and state law enforcement, prosecutors, and families affected by the epidemic. The conversation focused on disrupting trafficking networks, enforcement efforts, and the road ahead on treatment and recovery.

As the Washington Examiner covered in their article this past Friday, the roundtable highlighted the work the Trump administration along with state and local partners have done over the past 13 months to combat the fentanyl crisis in our Commonwealth. While we have made a lot of progress by strengthening border security, targeting cartels, and cutting off fentanyl precursors from China, we still have more to do.

Northeast Pennsylvania

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

Nate Gerace - Northeast PA Regional Director and I recently had the opportunity to attend State Representative Robert Leadbeter's farmer breakfast in Columbia County, where he met with agricultural leaders. Joined by Congressman Dan Meuser, Chris Hoffman, and Russell Redding, the conversation focused on ensuring farmers' voices are heard and their needs are met.
