U.S. CONGRESS

Celebrating Young Artists
Across Our Community

By Congressman Ryan Mackenzie

Our office hosted a celebration with the Baum School of Art for this year's local participants in the Congressional Art Competition. It was great to celebrate the incredible talent of students from across the Lehigh Valley and the Poconos, and to recognize the hard work and creativity they put into their submissions. Congratulations to this year's winner, Ella Chen of Parkland High School, whose charcoal piece "Sweet Dreams" will go on to be displayed in the U.S. Capitol. Congratulations to all of this year's participants—we're proud to showcase the next generation of artists from our community.
