Welcoming Holy Family Students to Harrisburg

By State Rep. Ann Flood

I was thrilled to welcome students from Holy Family School in Nazareth to Harrisburg last week. While in the Capitol, they toured the historic building and learned more about how state government works and the role legislators play in representing their communities.

It was great to spend time with the students, answer their questions and talk with them about the legislative process and the importance of staying engaged in civic life at an early age. We were joined by Rep. Joe Emrick, whose district also serves students at Holy Family School.

Honoring Outstanding Students and Educators

By State Rep. Ann Flood

The Colonial Intermediate Unit 20 Excellence in Education Awards and National Merit Scholar Ceremony brought together students, educators, school leaders, and families from across Northampton, Monroe, and Pike counties to celebrate academic achievement and innovative educational programs.

Held at Bethlehem Area Vocational-Technical School, the annual event recognizes outstanding teaching and learning initiatives throughout the Colonial IU 20 region while also honoring National Merit Scholar students for their exceptional accomplishments and dedication to excellence.

My legislative aide, Ann Knecht, attended the ceremony on my behalf and presented certificates of recognition to the student honorees in tribute to their hard work and success. Congratulations to all of this year's award recipients and educators who continue making a positive impact in our schools and communities.
