Recognizing Excellence at The Goddard School

By State Rep. Ann Flood

I had the pleasure of visiting The Goddard School in Easton to recognize its outstanding achievement in early childhood education.

The Goddard School has earned a Keystone STARS 4 designation, the highest quality rating available to child care centers in Pennsylvania. This distinction reflects the school's strong commitment to providing a safe, nurturing and high-quality learning environment for children and families.

During my visit, I had the opportunity to tour the facility and meet with staff to learn more about the important work they do each day. I was also honored to present a certificate of recognition in celebration of this milestone, which was placed on display in their hallway.

Congratulations to the entire Goddard School team in Easton for this well-deserved achievement and for their continued dedication to supporting our youngest learners and strengthening our community.
