Faith Christian School Class of 2026

By Ginny Jensen

PEN ARGYL - Valedictorian, Jakob Gillow, the son of Joshua and Bryn Gillow, has attended Faith Christian School since ninth grade. He has served on the yearbook staff during his freshman year and has been a member of National Honor Society since his sophomore year. He played volleyball during his junior and senior years, serving as team captain his senior year. In addition to attending Faith Christian School, Jakob studied Drafting and Design at Monroe Career and Technical Institute during his junior and senior years, where he earned his NOCTI and OSHA certifications. Jakob is the founder of J Visual Design, his own website and graphic design business, which he launched during his sophomore year. He also works as the website designer and manager for Tekton Growth, an online marketing agency, where he oversees upwards of twenty-five client websites. He has a passion for creativity, problem solving, and technology. Outside of school, he enjoys traveling, reading, listening to music, and attending concerts. He was named valedictorian of the Faith Christian School Class of 2026. After graduation, Jakob plans to continue growing his business and accept a full-time position with Tekton Growth.

Salutatorian, Katy Erwin, the daughter of Caleb and Amy Erwin, has attended Faith Christian School since kindergarten. She has served in student council as class secretary since freshman year. Katy has been a member of yearbook since her freshman year and has served as editor for her junior and senior years. She also joined the high school chorus her senior year. She was a part of the volleyball team her sophomore and junior years and joined soccer her senior year as well. She currently attends Life Church where she assists in the kids' life for the nursery and toddler rooms. Katy plans to attend East Stroudsburg University to study psychology.
