This Past Week in Washington

By U.S. Senator Dave McCormick

Dina and I attended the funeral of our friend Senator Lindsey Graham. Lindsey was truly one of a kind. He devoted his life to serving our country, led with conviction, and never stopped fighting for the causes he believed would make America stronger and safer. I will always remember his friendship, his sense of humor, and his extraordinary commitment to public service. We are grateful to have known him, and we continue to pray for his sister, Darline, and the entire Graham family.
