2026 Lehigh Valley Manufacturing Forum

By Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce

Lehigh Valley, PA - The Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce, ESSA Bank and the Manufacturers Resource Center present the 2026 Lehigh Valley Manufacturing Forum on Thursday, October 1 at the ArtsQuest Center at SteelStacks (101 Founders Way, Bethlehem, PA 18015).

This forum serves as a dedicated platform for discussing the unique opportunities, challenges, and innovations shaping our local manufacturing landscape.

Explore the diverse array of industries thriving in the Lehigh Valley, from food processing and plastics to metals and machinery.

Discuss key initiatives driving growth, such as workforce development, infrastructure investments, and sustainability practices.

Share insights on leveraging regional strengths like access to major markets, skilled labor pools, and educational institutions.

Collaborate on solutions to common industry challenges, such as supply chain management, regulatory compliance, and technology adoption.

Network with peers, industry leaders, and government representatives to foster partnerships and business opportunities.

Whether you're a manufacturer, supplier, service provider, or community stakeholder, this forum invites you to contribute your expertise, learn from others, and collectively advance the manufacturing sector in the Lehigh Valley. Let's build a stronger, more resilient manufacturing community together!

Presentations Include:

Welcome to Northampton County - Northampton County Executive Tara Zrinski

What You Should Expect from Your Banking Partner: ESSA Bank SVP/Commercial Relationship Team Lead Mike McCarthy
